Members,

Officers successfully established control of Rideau Street and all areas east of the Rideau Canal in this unprecedented effort to return our city to normal.

The investments made today have laid the foundation for a successful day tomorrow. Although I can't promise anyone how long this will last, I am confident that the progress as planned will continue through the weekend.

The professionalism and fortitude that all of you and our partners displayed today, even in the face of abusive behavior is a true testament of your resolve to see this to the end.

The OPS Operational Unified Commander for the night will be Superintendent Paul Burnett.

Very proud of all of you.

Rob
